

13.10.2014

Two 2-year ERC-funded positions are available to start as soon as possible. Both positions involve the study of oxide surfaces, mainly CeO₂ and TiO₂. One position will use STM to investigate ultra thin film growth/UV activation/ metal and molecule interactions. The second will use synchrotron radiation methods (SXR, HAXPES) to investigate photo-electrochemistry.

Contact: Prof Geoff Thornton (g.thornton@ucl.ac.uk)